

Ph.D Admission Guidelines to NRI

This is the special category of Ph.D admission offered by the KLEF (K L deemed to be University) to NRI's. The NRI candidates can pursue their Ph.D IN CAMPUS through this special category with the following procedure provided by the University.

- NRI candidate can apply for Ph.D program throughout the year by submitting Ph.D application form in online (Available at <https://www.kluniversity.in/applyonline.aspx>)
- NRI candidates seeking admission need to write entrance test conducted by the University and shall be provided admission based on the performance in written test and personal interview before university research committee.
- Candidate should submit all the certificates of qualification, experience, copy of passport, VISA and passport size photographs.
- The candidate should register at the beginning of every semester by paying required tuition fee of Rs 60,000 or equivalent amount in their currency to the university
- Candidate should clear Pre PhD examinations for three subjects based on the specialization mentioned in the university website.
- Candidate should give 5 successful reviews during PhD tenure of THREE YEARS and should publish 4 research journal articles indexed in both Scopus and Web of Science databases or two research articles from any journals of IEEE, ASME, ACM, ASCE, Nature, Science or Cell.
- On fulfilling all requirements, the candidate is eligible for a pre talk
- On successful completion of the Pre talk in person at KLU campus, the candidate shall be allowed to submit hard and soft copies of the thesis report for adjudication.
- The candidate shall defend the research work before one of the adjudicators in the final Viva Voce examination
- Contact Details: Email: academicresearch@kluniversity.in; deanrnd@kluniversity.in; Land line: 0863-2399999.

Ph.D Admission Guidelines to NRI

This is the special category of Ph.D admission offered by the KLEF (K L deemed to be University) to NRI's. The NRI candidates can pursue their Ph.D OFF CAMPUS through this special category with the following procedure provided by the University.

- NRI candidate can apply for Ph.D program throughout the year by submitting Ph.D application form in online (Available at <https://www.kluniversity.in/applyonline.aspx>)
- NRI candidates seeking admission need to write entrance test conducted by the University and shall be provided admission based on the performance in written test and personal interview through video conference before university research Committee.
- Candidate should submit all the certificates of qualification, experience, copy of passport, VISA and passport size photographs.
- Candidate should have external supervisor (Foreign supervisor) from foreign universities willing to guide the candidate at his/her place of work. Candidate should provide consent letter from foreign supervisor. University shall provide an internal supervisor.
- Candidate should clear Pre PhD examinations for three subjects based on the specialization mentioned in the university website.
- Candidate should give 5 successful reviews (At least one in person and remaining through video conference. If the person is in India, must attend a minimum of two reviews in person and remaining through video conference) during PhD tenure of THREE YEARS and should publish 4 research articles indexed in both Scopus and Web of Science databases or two research articles from any journals of IEEE, ASME, ACM, ASCE, Nature, Science or Cell
- On fulfilling all requirements, the candidate is eligible for the pre talk through video conference
- On successful completion of Pre talk, the candidate shall be allowed to submit hard and soft copies of the thesis report for adjudication.
- The candidate should register at the beginning of every semester by paying required tuition fee of Rs 60,000 or equivalent amount in their currency to the university
- The candidate shall defend the research work before one of the adjudicators in the final Viva Voce examination
- Contact Details: Email: academicresearch@kluniversity.in; deanrnd@kluniversity.in;
Land line: 0863-2399999.

Ph.D Admission Guidelines to Foreign Nationals

This is the special category of Ph.D admission offered by the KLEF (K L deemed to be University) to Foreign Nationals. The FN candidates can pursue their Ph.D OFF CAMPUS through this special category with the following procedure provided by the University.

- FN candidate can apply for Ph.D program throughout the year by submitting Ph.D application form in online (Available at <https://www.kluniversity.in/applyonline.aspx>)
- FN candidates seeking admission need to write entrance test conducted by the University and shall be provided admission based on the performance in written test and personal interview through video conference before university research Committee.
- Candidate should submit all the certificates of qualification, experience, copy of passport, VISA and passport size photographs.
- Candidate should have external supervisor (Foreign supervisor) from foreign universities willing to guide the candidate at his/her place of work. Candidate should provide consent letter from foreign supervisor. University shall provide an internal supervisor.
- Candidate should clear Pre PhD examinations for three subjects based on the specialization mentioned in the university website.
- Candidate should give 5 successful reviews (At least one in person and remaining through video conference. If the person is in India, must attend a minimum of two reviews in person and remaining through video conference) during PhD tenure of THREE YEARS and should publish 4 research articles indexed in both Scopus and Web of Science databases or two research articles from any journals of IEEE, ASME, ACM, ASCE, Nature, Science or Cell
- On fulfilling all requirements, the candidate is eligible for the pre talk through video conference
- On successful completion of the Pre talk, the candidate shall be allowed to submit hard and soft copies of the thesis report for adjudication.
- The candidate should register at the beginning of every semester by paying required tuition fee of Rs 80,000 or equivalent amount in their currency to the university
- The candidate shall defend the research work before one of the adjudicators in the final Viva Voce examination
- Contact Details: Email: academicresearch@kluniversity.in; deanrnd@kluniversity.in; Land line: 0863-2399999.

Ph.D Admission Guidelines to Foreign Nationals (FN)

This is the special category of Ph.D admission offered by the KLEF (K L deemed to be University) to FN's. The FN candidates can pursue their Ph.D IN CAMPUS through this special category with the following procedure provided by the University.

- FN candidate can apply for Ph.D program throughout the year by submitting Ph.D application form in online (Available at <https://www.kluniversity.in/applyonline.aspx>)
- FN candidates seeking admission need to write entrance test conducted by the University and shall be provided admission based on the performance in written test and personal interview through video conference before university research Committee.
- Candidate should submit all the certificates of qualification, experience, copy of passport, VISA and passport size photographs.
- The candidate should register at the beginning of every semester by paying required tuition fee of Rs 80,000 or equivalent amount in their currency to the university
- Candidate should clear Pre PhD examinations for three subjects based on the specialization mentioned in the university website.
 - Candidate should give 5 successful reviews during PhD tenure of THREE YEARS and should publish 4 research articles indexed in both Scopus and Web of Science databases or two research articles from any journals of IEEE, ASME, ACM, ASCE, Nature, Science or Cell
- On fulfilling all requirements, the candidate is eligible for the pre talk
- On successful completion of Pre talk, the candidate shall be allowed to submit hard and soft copies of the thesis report for adjudication.
- The candidate shall defend the research work before one of the adjudicators in the final Viva Voce examination
- Contact Details: Email: academicresearch@kluniversity.in; deanrnd@kluniversity.in; Land line: 0863-2399999.

Ph.D Admission Guidelines to Industry and Service Sector Aspirants

This is the special category of Ph.D admission offered by the KLEF (K L deemed to be University) to Industry and service sector people. Candidates can pursue their Ph.D OFF CAMPUS through this special category with the following procedure provided by the University.

- Industry candidate (10+ years' experience in Govt or Reputed Industries) and Service sector officials (10+ years in Govt organizations) can apply for Ph.D program throughout the year by submitting Ph.D application form in online (Available at <https://www.kluniversity.in/applyonline.aspx>)
- Industry candidate and Service sector officials seeking admission need to write entrance test conducted by the University and shall be provided admission based on the performance in written test and personal interview before university research committee.
- Candidate should submit all the certificates of qualification, experience, No-objection letter from working organization and passport size photographs.
- The candidate should register at the beginning of every semester by paying required tuition fee of Rs 50,000 to the university
- Candidate should clear Pre PhD examinations for three subjects based on the specialization mentioned in the university website.
 - Candidate should give 5 successful reviews (At least one in person and remaining through video conference) during PhD tenure of THREE YEARS and should publish 4 research articles indexed in both Scopus and Web of Science databases or two research articles from any journals of IEEE, ASME, ACM, ASCE, Nature, Science or Cell
- On fulfilling all requirements, the candidate is eligible for the pre talk either in person or video conference
- On successful completion of Pre talk, the candidate shall be allowed to submit hard and soft copies of the thesis report for adjudication.
- The candidate shall defend the research work before one of the adjudicators in the final Viva Voce examination
- Contact Details: Email: academicresearch@kluniversity.in; deanrnd@kluniversity.in; Land line: 0863-2399999.