

World Water Day 2011

22 March 2011: The Department of Civil Engineering, K L University celebrated World Water Day 2011 by organizing a one day workshop on “Water for Cities – Urban Challenges”

Sri. S. Govardhana Reddy, Executive Engineer, Panchayat Raj Department, Guntur District and Sri. M. Laxmipathi Rao, Deputy Executive Engineer, Andhra Pradesh State Irrigation Development Corporation (APSIDC) were invited speakers and delivered their lectures during the workshop.

Sri. S. Govardhana Reddy gave a presentation on Importance of water resources, water conservation methods, Drinking water supply and current status in the city. He extended his lecture with future water crisis in urban cities in urban areas, their causes and preservative measures

Sri. M. Laxmipathi Rao Garu shared his message on water supply system in urban areas, drinking water pollution causes and preservative measures, Importance of irrigation system, departments in Irrigation System, irrigation schemes.

Dr. Ch. Hanumantha Rao, Professor and Head, all the faculty members and students actively participated in this Workshop.

Address by Sri. S. Govardhana Reddy

Address by Sri. M. Laxmipathi Rao

Dr. Ch. Hanumantha Rao along with faculty and students participating in the workshop