

K L University

Department of Electrical & Electronics Engineering

Report on Subject based Workshop (for Faculty)

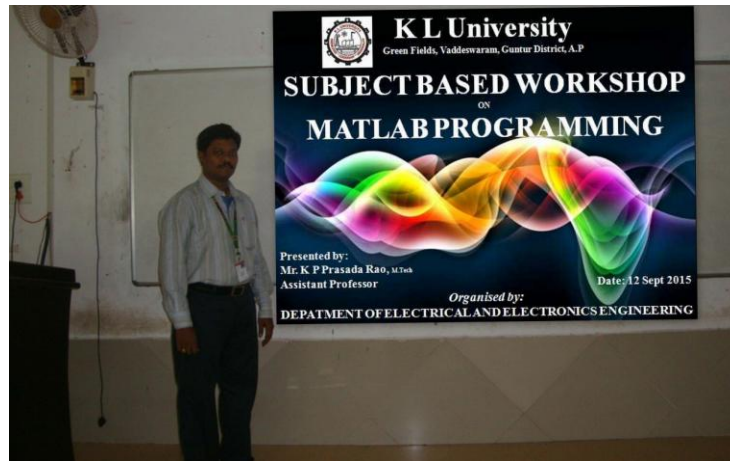

Topic: MATLAB Programming Skills.

Date: 12/09/2015.

Venue: E005 Room in EEE Block. KLU.

Organized by: Department of Electrical & Electronics Engineering.

Speaker: Mr. K. P. Prasad Rao, M.Tech.,(Ph.D.).

About Program: The main aim of this program is to develop the Programming Skills of faculty to do research in better way and ignite their knowledge into the research to submit their paper in referred journal like Scopus indexed journals, Science indexed journals etc. In this one day workshop, the contents are basics of MATLAB Programming, how to develop the programming skills with examples. It is very interactive session and audience (faculty) showing their interest to know the programming skills. Audience brought their laptops and solved the exercise programs parallelly with the speaker and asked the doubts related to their work.

