Title: Report on Professional Society Activity: “Chitralaya”
FilmFEST Collaboration between Vijayawada Short Film
Association and Department of Fine Arts at Peacock Hall, KL
University with Chief Guest Mr. Vishwak Sen.

Date: March 26, 2019

Introduction:

The collaboration between the Vijayawada Short Film Association and the Department of Fine Arts at Peacock Hall, KL University, marked a significant convergence of the film industry and the academic realm. With esteemed film hero Mr. Vishwak Sen gracing the occasion as the Chief Guest, the event became a beacon of inspiration for aspiring filmmakers and artists alike. This professional society activity aimed to bridge the gap between cinema and fine arts, fostering creativity, collaboration, and dialogue within the creative community.

Event Overview:

Date: March 26, 2019

Venue: Peacock Hall, KL University

The event comprised a series of activities designed to engage participants and provide them with opportunities for learning, networking, and artistic exploration. Through film screenings, panel discussions, workshops, and interactive sessions, attendees had the chance to interact with industry professionals, gain insights into the filmmaking process, and showcase their talent in a collaborative environment.

Key Highlights:

1. Guest Appearance by Mr. Vishwak Sen: The presence of Mr. Vishwak Sen, a renowned figure in the film industry, added prestige and excitement to the event. As the Chief Guest, he shared his experiences, insights, and words of encouragement with the audience, inspiring aspiring filmmakers and artists to pursue their passion with dedication and perseverance.

2. Film Screenings: The event featured screenings of short films curated by the Vijayawada Short Film Association, showcasing the diverse talents and storytelling techniques of emerging filmmakers. These screenings provided a platform for artists to share their work and engage with audiences, sparking discussions on themes, narratives, and cinematic aesthetics.

3. Panel Discussions: Expert panels comprising filmmakers, artists, and industry professionals led discussions on various topics related to filmmaking, visual arts, and the intersection between the two disciplines. Participants had the opportunity to gain valuable insights, ask questions, and learn from the experiences of the panelists.

4. Workshops and Interactive Sessions: Hands-on workshops and interactive sessions were conducted to provide participants with practical skills and knowledge in areas such as scriptwriting, cinematography, editing, and visual storytelling. These sessions fostered learning, creativity, and collaboration among attendees, empowering them to hone their craft and express their artistic vision.

5. Networking Opportunities: The event provided ample networking opportunities for participants to connect with peers, mentors, and industry professionals. Attendees had the chance to exchange ideas, collaborate on projects, and forge meaningful connections that could potentially lead to future collaborations and opportunities within the film and arts community.

Conclusion:

The collaboration between the Vijayawada Short Film Association and the Department of Fine Arts at Peacock Hall, KL University, with Chief Guest Mr. Vishwak Sen, was a resounding success, showcasing the power of collaboration, creativity, and community engagement within the creative industry. By bringing together filmmakers, artists, and enthusiasts, the event created a platform for learning, inspiration, and collaboration, fostering a culture of innovation and excellence.
