Report on CLAYMODELING WORKSHOP

30 March 2021, Vaddeswaram:

Clay Modelling Workshop in Department of Fine Arts, K L University (Deemed to be University).

Department of Fine Arts organised an exclusive workshop on Clay Modelling for the students of Fine Arts and Architecture. Mr. Srinivas Manda – Sculptor and Faculty from Andhra University from Forum for arts society, Vishakhapatnam and an eminent personality in the field of Sculpture have graced this workshop as a resource person. Srinivas Manda have shared his invaluable knowledge in the making of sculptures and trained students in the area of Head Study. More than 60 students have participated in the workshop and produced portrait sculptures of different sizes and poses. In the workshop, Srinivas Manda have emphasized the need for trained students in sculpture making thus to protect and preserve our ancient knowledge, culture and heritage. Dr. Gomathi Gowda said It is indeed a good workshop for the students to get familiarized with the art of sculpture making and we at the Department of Fine Arts are thankful to the guest of the day for imparting knowledge. Subhash Yalavarthy, faculty curated the workshop. Activities like this will happen at regular intervals of time to ensure the holistic training of the students, Mr. Subash, convener of the workshop said to the media. Students and Faculty of Fine Arts have actively participated in the workshop.
