

Barrowing

For borrowing library material/documents users need to be members of the library. They can use their RFID card issued by KL University at the time of joining. When they present the library document and the RFID Card at the Circulation Counter, the Counter staff will facilitate borrowing the items. The Users also can swipe the RFID Card and the document at the RFID Reader which will enable the documents issued to the respective member.