

Circulation Service

The image of library depends upon the functions of Circulation Section because a majority of the users in academic libraries interact with the staff of Circulation Section. Circulation Service deals with issue of library material to users, return and reservation of documents by the users of the library. The subject-wise usage statistics of Circulation Service helps the library in improving the collection development and/or purchasing more copies of popular titles.