

Study Carrels

A Study Carrel, especially in a library, is a partitioned or enclosed table near the stacks used for individual private study where a student or researcher can read or work undisturbed