

University Question Papers

The University examination question papers of previous years are collected and listed and recorded branch-wise, year-wise and semester-wise in the Stock Register for University Examination Question Papers. These are maintained in the Library for reference by students. Any library member wants copies of the question papers, these are provided to them at a nominal cost.