

Library Membership

The membership of the Central Library is open to all the students, research scholars, faculty and staff of KL University. Library members/users are entitled to borrow library documents for use outside the library premises.

As Members of the Central Library, the University-issued RFID Card enables them to avail all the library services including borrowing books. All members desirous of using the library shall swipe the University-issued RFID Card at the RFID Card Reader placed at the entrance.