

Visitors

The daily visitors to the Central Library include students, research scholars, staff, and faculty members to access, search, retrieve and download information and getting the required documents issued on loan. In addition the library is visited by casual and temporary members, allowed at the discretion of Librarian.

Many dignitaries, VIPs, top officials from other universities and offices also visit the library due to the ambience, excellent infrastructure possessed and resources subscribed by the library.