all times, Trust your gut instinct, avoid walking alone in dark or isolated areas, if you are being followed, go to a public place or call for help, If you are attacked, fight back and aim for the eyes and groin. The workshop was well-received by the participants, who said that they learned a lot about how to stay safe. The resource person was also praised for his informative and engaging presentation. Overall, the workshop was a valuable learning experience for the participants and helped to raise awareness of the importance of personal safety. The programme is ended with a vote of thanks to the resource person Col. K. Vijaya Bhaskar Reddy by Dr. M. Sreedevi Convener women's Forum, Dr V. Krishna Reddy, Co-ordinator, FED felicitated the Guest, with a memento.

Here are some additional tips that were shared during the workshop:

- If you are carrying a purse or bag, keep it close to your body and hold it with both hands.
- If you are walking at night, wear bright clothing and avoid wearing headphones.
- If you are in a car, lock the doors and keep the windows rolled up.
- If you are feeling threatened, call 911 or your local emergency number.

FEEDBACK:

Students feedback:

The students found the workshop to be informative and helpful. They appreciated the practical tips that were given on how to stay safe and avoid becoming a victim of crime. The students also found the self-defense techniques that were taught to be empowering.

Student 2 Feedback:

The students also appreciated the fact that the workshop covered a variety of topics, including personal safety, self-defense, and cyber security. They felt that the workshop gave them a comprehensive overview of the different threats that women face and how to protect themselves.

REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL LITERACY DAY CELEBRATIONS

DATE: 07.09.2019

TIME: 11: 00 AM TO 03: 00 PM

NO OF BENEFECIARES: 243 students

OBJECTIVES:

Objectives for the International Literacy Day celebrations in KLEF on 07th September 2019, with Smt. Koneru Kanchana Latha garu as the Chief Guest:

- To raise awareness of the importance of literacy. This can be done through speeches, presentations, and workshops that focus on the benefits of literacy for individuals, communities, and societies.
- To promote literacy programs and initiatives. This can be done by highlighting the work of organizations that are working to improve literacy rates, and by encouraging people to get involved in these programs.
- To celebrate the achievements of those who have overcome illiteracy. This can be done by honouring individuals who have learned to read and write, and by sharing their stories of success.
- To mobilize public opinion in favour of the fight against illiteracy. This can be done by calling on governments, businesses, and individuals to support literacy programs and initiatives.

SUMMARY:

A keynote speech by Smt. Koneru Kanchana Latha garu on the importance of literacy. A panel discussion with experts on literacy and education. A workshop on how to teach literacy to adults. A book fair featuring books on literacy and education. A talent show featuring performances by students who have learned to read and write. A community service project to help improve literacy rates in a local community. Our Women faculty and students also participated in this seminar, the programme

REPORT ON CANCER AWARENESS PROGRAM

DATE: 24.10.2019

TIME: 09.30 Am to 12.00 Noon

NO OF BENEFECIARES: 55 students

OBJECTIVES OF THE CANCER AWARENESS CAMP:

- To raise awareness about cancer. This includes educating people about the different types of cancer, the symptoms of cancer, and the importance of early detection.
- To educate people about the causes and prevention of cancer. This includes discussing life-style factors that can increase the risk of cancer, such as smoking, obesity, and excessive sun exposure.
- To provide support to cancer patients and their families. This includes providing information about cancer treatment options, emotional support, and financial assistance.
- To raise funds for cancer research. This includes funding research into new cancer treatments and prevention methods.

SUMMARY OF THE CANCER AWARENESS CAMP:

The programme started with a welcome note by Dr M.Sreedevi, Coordinator Women's Forum K L E F she introduced the resource person Dr. Kesava Ram Gopal MD (NIMS), ECMO, Radiation Oncologist to the gathering. Dr. Kesava Ram Gopal explained to students that Cancer is a deadly disease which is caused due to uncontrolled growth of the cells and forms from the extra mass tissue known as tumor. The loss of apoptotic nature by the cells in their metabolic pathway leads to cancer. Cigarette smoking, tobacco intake, alcohol intake, poor diet and exposure to UV rays lead to cancer. Different organs can be affected by cancer cells like lungs, kidney, eyes, heart, brain etc. Cancer cells also spread in blood stream and causes blood cancer. Unfortunately, after so much research and so many tests there is no fixed medicine has been invented that can prevent cancer fortunately there have been many medicines invented that can reduce the risk of it and it will slow down the speed of the disease. In recent times the researchers and scientists from all over the world have done more than millions of research on the same and invented many medications that will reduce the speed of spreading cancer in anyone's body. He said that Awareness is more important to make people to aware of the disease, its effects, how to prevent it, what are the treatments available and everything related to cancer. As it discussed cancer is deadly disease and can be cured by surgery, chemotherapy, radiation therapy. Though there are treatments for cancer but also some side effect is there due to these treatments. Sometimes after the Chemotherapy or surgery, again cancer returns in some other part of the body. Using high dose of anticancer drugs in chemotherapy treatment may cure initially but there will be high risk of cancer again the program is ended with a vote of thanks to the resource person Dr. Kesava Ram Gopal the faculty and convener women's forum felicitated the Guest, with a memento.

STUDENT FEEDBACKS:

Student 1: "I learned a lot about cancer and how to prevent it. I didn't know that there were so many different types of cancer, or that there were so many things I could do to reduce my risk. I'm going to start making some changes to my lifestyle based on what I learned at the camp."

Student 2: "The speakers were very informative and engaging. They did a great job of explaining complex medical concepts in a way that was easy to understand. I also appreciated their personal stories, which helped me to connect with the topic on a more emotional level."

Student 3: "The activities were fun and interactive. I especially enjoyed the group discussion, where we were able to share our thoughts and feelings about cancer. It was helpful to hear from other people who are also affected by this disease."

Student 4: "I would definitely recommend this camp to other students. It was a valuable learning experience, and I came away feeling more informed and empowered to take action against cancer."

REPORT ON MEDITATION PROGRAM

DATE: 28.01.20

TIME: 10.00AM

NO OF BENEFECIARES: 48 students

OBJECTIVES OF MEDITATION PROGRAM

- 1. Reduce stress and anxiety. Meditation can help to calm the mind and body, which can reduce stress and anxiety levels. This can be especially helpful for people who are struggling with chronic stress or anxiety disorders.
- 2. Improve focus and concentration. Meditation can help to train the mind to focus on the present moment, which can lead to improved focus and concentration. This can be helpful for students, professionals, and anyone else who needs to be able to focus on a task or activity.
- 3. Increase self-awareness. Meditation can help people to become more aware of their thoughts, feelings, and bodily sensations. This can lead to a deeper understanding of oneself and one's emotions, which can be helpful for personal growth and development.
- 4. Improve sleep quality. Meditation can help to promote relaxation and sleep, which can improve sleep quality. This can be especially helpful for people who are struggling with insomnia or other sleep problems.
- 5. Enhance overall well-being. Meditation has been shown to have several other benefits for overall well-being, including reducing pain, improving mood, and boosting the immune system.

SUMMARY OF THE WEBINAR:

The programme started with a welcome note by Dr M.Sreedevi, Coordinator Women's Forum K L E F she introduced theresource person B. Vamsi Kiran Spiritual Master to the gathering. He explained to students that Meditation is a simple way of freeing your mind, forgetting about daily anxieties and focusing on mental relaxation. Going into a meditative state involves learning to become a passive observer of one's thoughts. It does not mean suppressing them or attempting to force them to disappear. Meditation is the process of continuous focus on one object for a prolonged period of time. It is a gentle, subtle method which does not require any force or pressure on the mind. The result you gain out of the practice is increased concentration and focus.

He told some simple five tips for beginners to learn how to meditate:

- Find a quiet, peaceful place.
- Sit comfortably, with eyes closed and focus on the heart.
- Begin with a suggestion that the source of light is within my heart and it is attracting me inwards.
- Meditate for 10 minutes, or until you feel ready to come out of the meditation.
- Repeat it every day, in the morning and the evening. Incorporating this time for quiet contemplation and reflection can bring you enormous mental and physical benefits.

The programme is ended with a vote of thanks to the resource person B. Vamsi Kiran, the faculty and convener women's forum felicitated the Guest, with shall and a memento.

REPORT ON CANCER CARE AND IMMUNOTHERAPY

DATE: 26.02.2020

TIME: 09.30am to 11.00 am

NO OF BENEFECIARES: 39 students

OBJECTIVES OF CANCER CARE AND IMMUNOTHERAPY PROGRAM

- Cure the cancer. This is the ideal objective of cancer treatment, and it is possible for a number of common cancers, especially if detected early.
- Control the cancer. If a cure is not possible, the goal of treatment may be to control the cancer and prevent it from spreading. This can be done through a variety of methods, including surgery, chemotherapy, radiation therapy, and immunotherapy.
- Improve the patient's quality of life. Even if a cure is not possible, treatment can still improve the patient's quality of life by reducing symptoms, such as pain and fatigue, and by allowing them to live as normal a life as possible.

SUMMARY:

The programme started with a welcome note by Dr M. Sreedevi, Coordinator Women's Forum KLEF. She introduced the resource person Dr. Ravi Kiran Bobba to the gathering. He explained Immunotherapy is a type of cancer treatment that helps your immune system fight cancer. The immune system helps your body fight infections and other diseases. It is made up of white blood cells and organs and tissues of the lymph system. As part of its normal function, the immune system detects abnormal cells and most likely prevents or curbs the growth of many cancers. For instance, immune cells are sometimes found in and around tumors. These cells, called tumor-infiltrating lymphocytes, or TILs, are a sign that the immune system is responding to the tumor. People whose tumors contain TILs often do better than people whose tumors don't contain them.

He also explained that Even though the immune system can prevent or slow cancer growth, cancer cells have ways to avoid destruction by the immune system. For example, cancer cells may:

- Have genetic changes that make them less visible to the immune system.
- Have proteins on their surface that turn off immune cells.
- Change the normal cells around the tumor so they interfere with how the immune system responds to the cancer cells

STUDENTS FEEDBACK:

Student 1: I was very impressed with the level of care I received. The doctors and nurses were always so knowledgeable and compassionate.

Student 2: I was glad to have access to immunotherapy. It was a new treatment for my cancer, but it worked well.

Student 3: I was grateful for the support groups that were available to me. It was helpful to talk to other people who were going through the same thing.

REPORT ON SKIN CARE & WOMEN WELLNESS PROGRAMME

DATE: 03.03.2020

TIME: 10: 00 AM TO 05: 00 PM

NO OF BENEFECIARES: 44 students

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAM:

- To educate women about the importance of skin care and overall health and wellness.
- To provide women with practical tips on how to care for their skin and maintain their overall health.
- To raise awareness of common skin problems and how to prevent them.
- To empower women to take control of their own health and well-being.

SUMMARY OF THE PROGRAM:

The program started with a welcome note by Dr M.Sreedevi, Coordinator Women's Forum K L E F she introduced the resource person Dr. Anitha, CraneHospitals, Vijayawada. to the gathering. She told that Everyday Health saw a unique opportunity to explore how women actually define what makes them well or unwell. The picture is much more complex and more layered than we think. What we do know for sure: At the end of the day, how any woman, of any age, race, or ethnicity; single or married; with or without children; and living in a city, suburb, or rural area defines wellness goes well beyond asking the question "Am I healthy?" or "Am I disease-free?" She suggested for women Healthy habits are the best way to avoid disease, prolong your life, and live more happily. But in the chaos of a woman's daily life, healthy living may take back seat to chores, work, busy schedules, and more. Take these simple steps toward a longer, healthier life.

1. Menstruation, Health & Hygiene
2. Balanced diet
3. Obesity and Exercise, Pcod

1. Menstruation, Health & Hygiene:

52% of women worldwide are in reproductive age and most of them thus are menstruating monthly.

Still, the majority of them are not in conditions to take care of their menstruation in a hygienic manner or are impaired by it. Menstruation is supposed to be invisible & silent.

2. Balanced diet:

Eating a balanced diet starts with avoiding unhealthy foods. Packaged and processed foods are often full of sugar, salt, unhealthy fats, and calories. Avoid the fake stuff, and opt for the good stuff, such as:

1. Eating a variety of nutritious foods on the food plate
2. Eating well-balanced meals with healthy snacks everyday & occasional treats
3. Listening to your body- eating when you're hungry, stopping when you're full
4. A healthy diet provides the vitamins, minerals, and energy your body needs to perform its best
5. A healthy diet can help lower your risk for diseases such as cancer, diabetes, and heart disease

3. Obesity and Exercise, Pco:

If you are tall and you weigh more, it doesn't mean you are obese. Obesity, diet, exercise and pco are interlinked with each other. All of you will know the advantages of being slim.... It doesn't make you look good, it should only make a person feel healthy. Slim doesn't mean skinny, it means maintaining normal bmi by eating healthy food and regular exercise. Obesity leads to irregular cycles and pcos. Obesity leads to hormonal imbalance, increase in sugars, increase in male hormones which ultimately leads to irregular cycles and pco. pco are not disease of the ovary, it is one of the effects of hormonal imbalance. People think, cos of irregular cycles, you tend to put on weight, development of unwanted hair growth. It's a misnomer. It's the weight gain which leads to all these problems.

It's a form of physical activity done primarily to improve one's health and fitness.

Exercise is one of the best ways to keep us strong. It's also beneficial for your mental and bone health. Aim for 30 minutes of movement at least four days per week. Aerobic, or cardio, exercise is best. A good number of girl students participated in this seminar. The programme is ended with a the world to pay honour to the great women of the society. Empowering women is very necessary for bringing gender equality. Most of the conventional people still feel that women should be confined to household chores and should not step out for work, etc as that's not their area of work; which shouldn't be practiced in today's society. Women today have got equal potential provided they are been trusted and valued. Today's women realize their strengths and abilities and step out in order to contribute to the society and the world. It really feels nice to have a special day for women too when they can be appreciated and honoured. But I feel that woman should be respected not just because they are women, but also because they are individuals with their own identity. They contribute equally to the betterment of the society. I would say, if there is no woman on the earth then mankind would cease to exist because it's a woman who brings life to this earth. Every woman is special whether she is working at home or office or doing both.

REPORT ON LEGAL RIGHTS FOR WOMEN

DATE: 24.06.2020

TIME: 10: 00 AM TO 1:00 PM

NO OF BENEFECIARES: 49 students

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAM:

- Impart knowledge about women's legal rights and remedies. This includes understanding the various laws that protect women's rights, as well as the procedures for accessing justice.
- Sensibilize men about women's rights. This includes challenging gender stereotypes and promoting a culture of respect for women's rights.
- Create awareness about the various mechanisms for redressing women's grievances. This includes the police, the judiciary, and legal aid services.
- Empower women to claim their rights. This includes providing them with the knowledge and skills they need to navigate the legal system and to assert their rights.

SUMMARY:

The programme started in online with a welcome note by Dr M.Sreedevi, Coordinator Women's Forum K L E F she introduced the resource person Dr. P. Sailaja, Associate Professor in Law College K L University to all the students who are in on line. Dr P.Sailaja started this session in online to the students that there are several laws that give women the power to fight adversities such as discrimination, harassment, violence and abuse. Women rights can be broadly classified into two categories constitutional rights and legal rights. Those guaranteed by the Constitution include Right to Equality, no discrimination in employment on the ground of sex, to secure adequate means of livelihood, equal pay for equal work, securing just and humane conditions of work and maternity relief etc. On the other hand, legal rights are available to women in the form of prevailing law or enactments in the country. She also told that 14 relevant laws that she says women in India should know to be aware of their legal rights they are

Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act: A comprehensive legislation is essential to protect Indian women from different types of domestic violence. It ensures protection for women who are in a relationship and are subjected to constant physical, mental, sexual, verbal and emotional violence.

Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act: It helps in protecting women from trafficking for the purpose of prostitution as an organised means of living.

Indecent Representation of Women (Prohibition) Act: It prevents improper representation of women via any advertisement or in publications, writings, paintings, figures or in any other manner.

Dowry Prohibition Act: It prohibits the giving or taking of dowry at or before or any time after the marriage from women.

She also explained that, both Indian Penal Code (IPC) and Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC) have provisions to help women. While relevant sections of the IPC deal with dowry deaths, cruelty, rape, abduction and other offences, CrPC has certain safeguards such as the obligation of a man to maintain his wife, arrest of a woman by female police personnel only etc. Finally the programme ended with a oath of thanks by Dr. M. Sree Devi, Convener Women's Forum, to the resource person.

FEEDBACK:

Student 1: The program Legal Rights for Women is a valuable resource for women in India who are seeking information about their legal rights. The program provides a comprehensive overview of the laws that protect women, as well as information about how to access legal services. The program is also available in multiple languages, which makes it accessible to a wider range of women.

Student 2: The program was very informative and helpful. I learned a lot about my legal rights, and I feel more confident in my ability to assert them. The program was easy to understand and navigate. I was able to find the information I was looking for quickly and easily. The program was available in my language, which made it much easier for me to understand. I was able to follow along and learn about my rights without any difficulty.

REPORT ON HEALTH CAMP ON HEMOGLOBIN TESTING IN BLOOD

DATE: 27.06.2020

TIME: 11.00 AM to 01.00 PM

NO OF BENEFECIARES: 34 students

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAM:

- Increase awareness of the importance of hemoglobin testing. Hemoglobin is a protein in red blood cells that carries oxygen to the body's tissues. Low hemoglobin levels can lead to anemia, which can cause fatigue, shortness of breath, and other symptoms. By increasing awareness of the importance of hemoglobin testing, we can help people to identify and treat anemia early, before it causes serious health problems.
- Screen for anemia and other blood disorders. Hemoglobin testing is a simple and painless procedure that can be used to screen for anemia and other blood disorders. By screening people for these conditions, we can help to identify them early and provide treatment before they cause serious health problems.
- Educate people about the causes and treatment of anemia. Anemia can be caused by a variety of factors, including iron deficiency, vitamin deficiency, and chronic diseases. By educating people about the causes and treatment of anemia, we can help them to understand their condition and take steps to manage it.
- Promote healthy lifestyles. There are a number of things that people can do to promote healthy blood levels, such as eating a balanced diet, getting regular exercise, and avoiding smoking. By promoting healthy lifestyles, we can help people to maintain healthy blood levels and reduce their risk of developing anemia and other blood disorders.

01.00PM. A hemoglobin test measures the amount of hemoglobin in your blood. Hemoglobin is a protein in your red blood cells that carries oxygen to your body's organs and tissues and transports carbon dioxide from your organs and tissues back to your lungs. If a hemoglobin test reveals that your hemoglobin level is lower than normal, it means you have a low red blood cell count (anemia). Anemia can have many different causes, including vitamin deficiencies, bleeding and chronic diseases. The normal range for hemoglobin is:

FEEDBACK:

Student 1: The program was well-organized and informative. The speakers were knowledgeable and engaging, and they did a good job of explaining the importance of hemoglobin testing and how to interpret the results. The location of the health camp was convenient and easy to access. The venue was well-equipped and comfortable, and there was plenty of parking available.

Student 2: The staff at the health camp were friendly and helpful. They were patient and answered all of my questions. I learned a lot about hemoglobin testing and how it can be used to diagnose anemia. I am grateful for the opportunity to participate in this program and I would recommend it to others.
