Description

On the 13th of July 2024, the Student Activity Center (SAC) Hall at our institution was filled with enthusiasm and reverence as we celebrated the birthday of the eminent Telugu theatre artist, Sri C.S.R. This event was a heartfelt tribute to his invaluable contributions to Telugu theatre and cinema, aimed at honoring his legacy and inspiring the young generation. The event saw the participation of 62 students from various departments, reflecting a wide array of interests and academic backgrounds. In addition to the students, several SAC mentors were present, providing guidance and support throughout the event. The entire program was meticulously executed under the capable leadership of Mr. M.V.G. Krishnamurthy, our Dramatics Trainer.

Activity Outcomes

Mr. M.V.G. Krishnamurthy, a seasoned dramatics trainer, then took the stage to share his expertise with the students. His session was not just a lecture but an interactive workshop designed to impart practical skills and boost the confidence of aspiring actors and public speakers. Key highlights of his session included:

1. Basics of Acting:

- Introduction to fundamental acting techniques.
- Understanding character development and emotional expression.
- Practical exercises to enhance acting skills.

2. Public Speaking:

- Tips on effective communication and audience engagement.
- Techniques to maintain poise and clarity while speaking.
- Importance of body language and vocal modulation.

3. Reducing Stage Fear:

- Strategies to overcome stage fright and anxiety.
- Role-playing and improvisation exercises to build confidence.
- Encouragement and positive reinforcement to help students feel comfortable on stage.

The interactive nature of the session encouraged students to participate actively, ask questions, and practice the techniques demonstrated. Mr. Krishnamurthy's approachable and motivational style made the learning experience both enjoyable and impactful.

Conclusion:

The event concluded on a high note, with students and mentors alike applauding and cheering as they reminisced about the sacrifices and contributions of Sri C.S.R. The atmosphere was one of gratitude and inspiration, with participants leaving the hall with a deeper appreciation for the art of theatre and a renewed sense of confidence.

The Sri C.S.R. Birthday celebration was not just an event but a learning experience that paid homage to a great artist while fostering the growth and development of future talents in theatre and public speaking. The success of this event is a testament to the dedication of our students, the guidance of our mentors, and the enduring legacy of Sri C.S.R.
