DESCRIPTION

Introduction:

The Student Activity Center (SAC) organized the Solo Act Showcase: Expressive Monologue Competition on 17th October 2024, under the guidance of Krishnamurthy, the Dramatics Mentor. This event provided a platform for students to showcase their acting talents through compelling and emotive monologues, highlighting the depth and creativity of their expressions.

Objectives:

- To encourage students to express themselves creatively.
- To promote the art of monologues and theater performance.
- To develop confidence, public speaking, and stage presence. To foster a spirit of healthy competition and peer learning.

Event Details

The competition began at 5:30PM with a brief introduction by Krishnamurthy, who shared insights on the importance of monologues in theatrical arts. Participants performed a variety of self-composed and famous monologues, ranging from emotional to comedic to inspirational themes.

Conclusion:

Highlights:

-Participant Showcase:

A total of 15 students participated, each delivering a unique performance.

-Themes included mental health, societal issues, personal growth, and fictional narratives.

Evaluation:

Performances were judged on parameters such as expression, originality, voice modulation, body language, and impact. The judging panel comprised faculties & Mentors from SAC Department

Impact:

The competition successfully achieved its objectives by encouraging self-expression and creativity. Students gained valuable insights into dramatics, improved their stage skills, and enjoyed a sense of camaraderie and mutual learning.

Feedback and Acknowledgments:

The participants and audience lauded the efforts of SAC and Krishnamurthy for organizing such a captivating event. Special thanks were extended to the technical team for seamless execution and the audience for their enthusiastic participation.

Conclusion

The Solo Act Showcase not only celebrated the art of monologues but also underscored the potential of students in dramatics. The event's success has set a benchmark for future competitions and reinforced the importance of cultural activities in student development.
