Description

Report on “ Street Stage: Socially Relevant Play Performance ”

Organized by: Dramatics Club, KL University, Vijayawada

Date: 24th December- 2024

Venue: Sac Hall, KL University

Introduction:

The Dramatics Club of KL University organized a compelling theatrical event, "Street Stage: Socially Relevant Play Performance," on 24th December 2024 at SAC Hall. The event aimed to use the powerful medium of drama to raise awareness about pressing social issues and foster a sense of responsibility among students.

Objective:

The primary goal of the event was to engage students in thought-provoking performances that addressed real-world societal challenges. Through impactful storytelling and dynamic stage performances, the event sought to inspire change and encourage discussions on social issues such as gender equality, mental health awareness, environmental conservation, and corruption.

Event Highlights

- The program commenced with a welcome address by the faculty coordinator of the Dramatics Club, emphasizing the importance of theatre in addressing social concerns.
- Several short plays were performed, each shedding light on different societal problems. The performances were characterized by powerful dialogues, emotive expressions, and creative storytelling techniques.
- The interactive nature of the plays encouraged audience participation, making them more engaging and impactful.
- A panel discussion followed the performances, where students and faculty members shared their thoughts on the issues presented and discussed potential solutions.
- The event concluded with a vote of thanks, appreciating the efforts of the performers, organizers, and the audience for making the program a success.
