Outcomes of the Professional Society Committee Meeting

The Professional Society Committee meeting held on October 2, 2023, resulted in the successful organization of a campus-wide cleanliness drive in alignment with the spirit of Mahatma Gandhi's "Swachhata Hi Seva" initiative.

Key outcomes of the event include:

- Active participation: A significant number of students and faculty from the Commerce Department enthusiastically participated in the cleanliness drive.
- Enhanced environmental consciousness: The event fostered a strong sense of responsibility towards the environment among participants.
- Campus beautification: The collective efforts of students and faculty led to a cleaner and more hygienic campus environment.
- Community engagement: The initiative demonstrated the Commerce Department's commitment to social responsibility and community welfare.

- Team building: The event promoted teamwork and collaboration among students and faculty.

By organizing this cleanliness drive, the Commerce Department has made a substantial contribution to creating a cleaner and healthier campus environment.
