Report on Plant Distribution Drive Conducted

on 15-08-2021 at Vaddeswaram

Objective:

The objective of the Plant Distribution Drive conducted on 15-08-2021 at Vaddeswaram was to promote environmental sustainability and increase green cover by distributing plants to residents. This initiative aimed to involve the community in tree planting activities, raise awareness about the importance of trees, and encourage collective responsibility towards environmental conservation.

Description:

On the eve of the 75th Independence Day celebrations, Unit-04 NSS Volunteers conducted a plant distribution drive in Vaddeswaram village, distributing Jama and Neredu plants door-to-door. The event saw active participation from Dr. P. Gopikrishna, Program Officer from the EEE department, NSS Incharge Mr. D. Kalyan, and other faculty members. Advisor Dean of Student Affairs Dr. Habibulla Khan, Dean of Student Affairs Dr. KRS. Prasad, Extension Activities Associate Dean Dr. K. Ravindranath, and KLEF NSS Programme Coordinator Mr. P. Srikanth Reddy commended the volunteers for their efforts.

Outcome:

The outcome of the plant distribution drive on the eve of the 75th Independence Day in Vaddeswaram village included enhanced community engagement in environmental conservation, increased green cover due to the distribution of Jama and Neredu plants, and heightened awareness about the importance of trees among residents. The participation of faculty and appreciation from university leaders further motivated the NSS volunteers, reinforcing the value of their contributions to sustainable practices.

Impact on Society:

The plant distribution drive fostered environmental awareness and responsibility among Vaddeswaram residents, enhancing local green cover and promoting community involvement in sustainable practices. The active participation and support from faculty and university leaders inspired continued volunteerism and environmental stewardship.
