Report on Pulse Polio Awareness Campaign Conducted on 19-02-2022 at Gundimeda

Objective:

The objective of the Pulse Polio Awareness Campaign conducted on 19-02-2022 at Gundimeda was to promote polio vaccination among children under five years old through awareness and outreach activities. The campaign aimed to achieve maximum vaccination coverage, eliminate polio transmission, and ensure community participation in sustaining polio-free status.

Description:

K L College of Pharmacy NSS volunteers actively participated in the Pulse Polio Awareness Program led by the NSS Officer of the Pharmacy Department and KLEF NSS team. Starting at 10:00 am from the Village Panchayat office in Gundimeda, teams, accompanied by faculty members and local Asha workers, visited households to educate villagers about the upcoming pulse polio drive on 27/02/2022. The initiative received appreciation from Dr. Habibulla Khan, Dr. KRS Prasad, Dr. K. Ravindranath, Mr. P. Srikanth Reddy, Dr. Chakravarthi G, and coordinated by Dr. Naresh Dumala and other faculty members.

Outcome:

The Pulse Polio Awareness Program at Gundimeda successfully informed villagers about the upcoming vaccination drive, ensuring widespread awareness and participation. NSS volunteers' efforts, supported by faculty and local Asha workers, significantly contributed to promoting immunization and enhancing community health.

Impact on Society:

The event had a profound impact on society by increasing awareness about polio vaccination, thereby potentially reducing the incidence of polio in the community. It also strengthened community engagement and collaboration between volunteers, faculty, and local health workers in promoting public health initiatives.
