Report on "Engaging Communities: Blood Grouping Camp" On 30-03-2023 at Prathuru

Details of the Event

Name of the Event :"Engaging Communities: Blood Grouping Camp"

Date of the Event :30-03-2023

Venue :Prathuru Village

No. of Participants: Students: 100Faculty, Staff: 4

Objective:

The objective of the "Blood Grouping Test" program conducted by the Department of B.Sc.(Hon.) Agriculture under the National Service Scheme(NSS)Unit-04atKLDeemedto be University was to provide the residents of Prathuru village in Tadepalli Mandal, Guntur District, Andhra Pradesh, with an opportunity to determine their blood groups. The program aimed to raise awareness about the importance of knowing one's blood group and its relevance in medical emergencies.

Description

The "Blood Grouping Test" program took place on 30-03-2023 in Prathuru village. The NSS volunteers from the B.Sc. (Hon.) Agriculture department, supervised by faculty members Dr.R.Supriya, Dr.D.Naresh, Dr.M.Narender, and coordinators Mr.P.Suresh and Mr.GVKP Chandra Sekhar, visited the village as part of their door-to-door activity.

The volunteers interacted with the villagers, emphasizing the significance of knowing one's blood group. They explained the importance of blood group identification in emergencies and medical treatments. A total of 562 people participated in the blood grouping test, and the volunteers provided them with their respective blood groups in written format.

The efforts of the NSS volunteers and faculty members were appreciated by Dr. G.Chakravarthi, the Principal of the College of Pharmacy, Mr. P. Srikanth Reddy, NSS Coordinator at K L University and Dr. Ch. Hanumantha Rao, Dean of Student Affairs. The event also received recognition from Advisors Dean Student Affairs Dr. Habibullah Khan and Dr.KRS.Prasad.

Outcome

The "Blood Grouping Test" program yielded positive results, offering Prathuru village residents a chance to ascertain their blood types. By emphasizing the significance of blood group awareness, the initiative empowered participants to make informed health decisions and prepare for potential medical emergencies.

Administering blood grouping tests for 562 individuals showcased the dedication of NSS volunteers. Providing written documentation of blood groups ensured participants had tangible records for future use.

Acknowledgment from university authorities, including the Principal, NSS Coordinator, and Director of the Student Activity Centre, underscored the event's importance and recognized the efforts of volunteers and faculty members. The program effectively fulfilled its goal of conducting blood grouping tests and promoting awareness about the importance of knowing one's blood group, equipping participants with valuable health insights.

Impact on society:

The "Blood Grouping Test" program significantly impacted the society by fostering health awareness and empowering individuals to make informed decisions about their well-being. Through accessible testing and education, it contributed to enhancing community health literacy and preparedness for medical emergencies.
