Objective

The objective of the "Free Medical Camp" conducted by the Department of Computer Science Engineering (CSE) under the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit-02 at KLDeemed to be University was to provide free medical services and check-ups to the residents of Pedapalem village. The program aimed to improve access to healthcare, raise awareness about health conditions, and promote the importance of regular medical check-ups.

Description

The "Free Medical Camp" took place on 31-03-2023 in Pedapalem village, in association with Duhitha Multispecialty Hospital, Shine Multispecialty Hospital, and Amaravathi Eye Hospital Vijayawada. The program began with door-to-door campaigning by groups of students, informing villagers about the health camp conducted at the Primary Health Centre in Pedapalem. Mean while, some students set up the necessary equipment and facilities at the health center.

The camp was inaugurated by Mr.Patibandla Krishna Prasad, the President of Pedapalem. Duhitha Multi specialty Hospital provided dental check-ups, Shine Multi specialty Hospital conducted general check-ups (blood pressure, diabetes), and orthopedic-related check-ups, while Amaravathi Eye Hospital offered eye-related check-ups. The hospitals not only provided medical services but also distributed tablets and offered suggestions to thevillagers.

The camp enabled the villagers to receive essential medical services and gain awarenessabout their health conditions. The students from KL University conducted a door-to-door campaign, convincing and explaining to people about the camp. Volunteers provided their services confidently wherever they were needed.

The event was presided over by Dr. Ch. Hanumanth Rao, the Dean of Student Affairs, who played a crucial role in its success. Dr. K.R.S. Prasad and Dr. Habibullah Khan, the Advisors of Student Affairs, highly esteemed the idea of conducting the event. Dr.A.Senthil, the HOD of CSE, emphasized the importance of participating in such activities. Dr. K. Ruth Ramya, the Associate Dean of Student Affairs, appreciated thework of the volunteers. The event was successful under the guidance of Mr. P. Srikanth Reddy, the Program Coordinator of KLEF NSS. Mr.P.Suresh and Mr.GVKP Chandrasekhar coordinated the event as the Coordinators of Community Engagement Activities(CEA).

Outcome

The "Free Medical Camp" program in Pedapalem village yielded significant benefits. It offered free medical services, fostering better access to healthcare and enhancing awareness about health conditions. Collaboration with various hospitals ensured comprehensive check-ups, while door-to-door campaigns facilitated active community participation. The program, guided by university officials, successfully achieved its goal of promoting regular check-ups and improving the overall health and well-being of the villagers.
