EVENT TITLE: BLOOD DONATION PROGRAMME

OBJECTIVE

The objective of the Blood Donation Camp was to collect a substantial number of blood units through active student participation while also creating awareness about the importance of blood donation. The event aimed to serve both the immediate healthcare needs of the community and the long-term goal of fostering a culture of altruism and community service among the students.

SUMMARY

On August 18, 2018, KLU University Youth Red Cross Unit (BBA & MBA) organized a blood donation camp in collaboration with Red Cross – Vijayawada. The event witnessed active student participation, with numerous students generously donating their blood. A total of 96 units of blood were collected during the camp.

The program was inaugurated by prominent figures within the university, including Dr. Habibullah Khan (Dean Student Affairs), Dr. M. Kishore Babu (Principal–School of Management Studies), and Dr. Ravindra (Associate Dean). These dignitaries took the opportunity to create awareness among the students about the vital importance of blood donation.

Mr. Khalisha Vali and Dr. J. Venkata Ramana played key roles in coordinating and organizing the event. This blood donation camp demonstrated the commitment of KLU University and its students to contribute to the community's well-being by providing a significant number of units of blood for those in need.

OUTCOME

Blood donation camps can help to raise awareness of the importance of blood donation and encourage people to donate blood. Blood donation camps can help to increase the blood supply in a community, which can save lives.
