EVENT TITLE: EYE CHECK-UP CAMP

OBJECTIVE

The objective of the Eye Check-up Camp was to provide accessible vision care services to the university community, and the event was executed successfully, benefiting numerous participants.

SUMMARY

On Feb 14, 2023, an Eye Check-up Camp was organized by K L University Youth Red Cross (College of Pharmacy) in collaboration with Sri Kamakshi Eye Care Hospital & Help foundation. Here is a summarized version of the event:

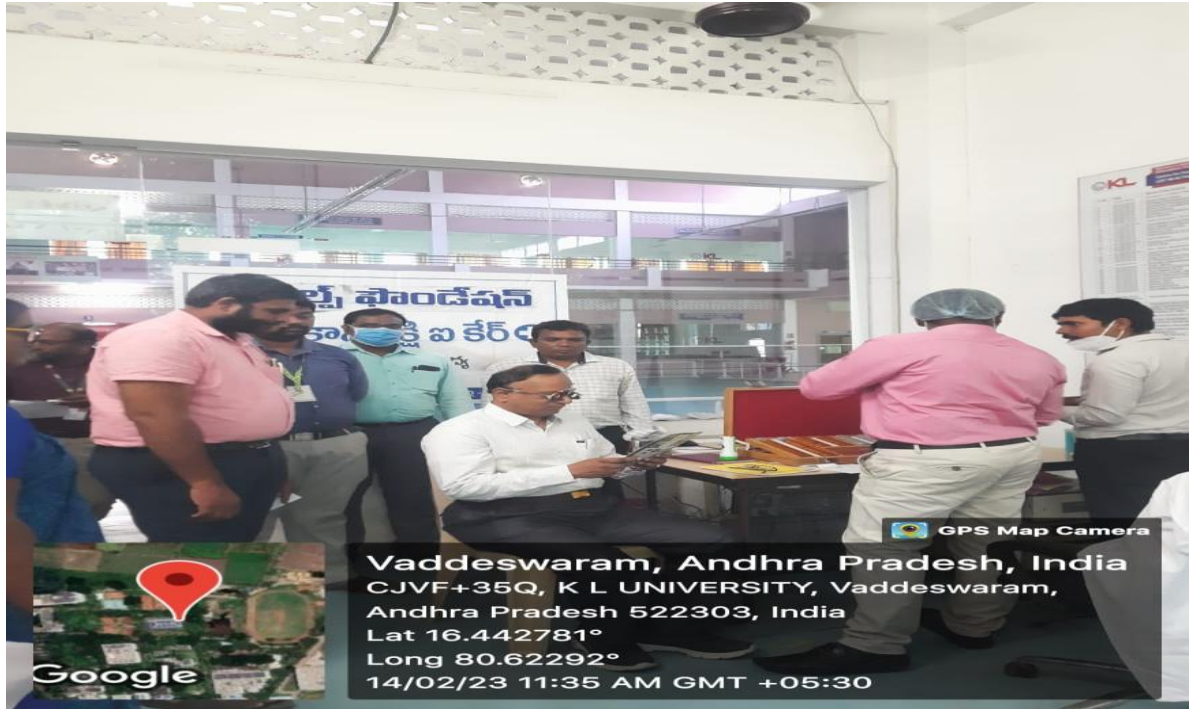

- The camp took place from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM and was inaugurated by the Hon'ble Registrar of the University, Prof. R.R.L. Kantham, and the Dean-Students Affairs, Dr. Habibulla Khan.
- Health professionals from Sri Kamakshi Eye Care Hospital conducted comprehensive eye check-ups for participants, including teaching and non-teaching staff, as well as students. They used specialized eye examination tools like an autorefractor to assess participants' vision.
- Based on the eye examination results, participants were provided with recommendations for wearing suitable spectacles to correct their vision. Complimentary frames were also provided to accommodate the prescribed lenses.
- Approximately 80 individuals, of KLEF participated in the event and received the benefits of the eye check-up.
- The event was successfully organized by volunteers from the College of Pharmacy, who actively participated in its coordination and implementation.
- The efforts of the Youth Red Cross volunteers and the efficient arrangements made for the Eye Check-up Camp were appreciated by key university officials, including the Dean-Students Affairs, Dr. Habibulla Khan, and Associate Dean Dr. Ravindranath, as well as Youth Red Cross Professor Incharge, Dr. A. Rajasekhar Reddy.
- The faculty members and Youth Red Cross in-charges, Dr. A. Anka Rao, Mr. B. Naga Raju, played crucial roles in ensuring the smooth conduct of the Eye Check-up Camp.

In summary, the Eye Check-up Camp successfully provided valuable eye care services to participants from various segments of the university community. The efforts of the volunteers and the support of the university's leadership were instrumental in the event's success.
