Objective:

AP 31st NCSC- volunteering , the KLEF_YRC team conducted at KLEF on 29-11-2023 and 30-11-2023

Description:

The 31st National Children's Science Congress (NCSC) in Andhra Pradesh offers a unique opportunity for young minds to explore the wonders of science. As a volunteer, you can actively contribute to this inspiring event by assisting with various tasks, such as guiding students through science experiments, organizing workshops, and managing logistics. By volunteering, you not only gain valuable experience but also inspire the next generation of scientists, fostering a love for learning and scientific inquiry.

Procedure of the Event:

1. The KLEF_YRC team conducted AP 31st NCSC- volunteering
2. They commenced the event by explaining the importance and purpose of AP 31st NCSC- volunteering
3. Organized by the YRC volunteers from KL University.

Outcome of the event:

The 31st National Conference of State Societies (NCSC) of the American Physical Society (APS) was a resounding success, thanks in large part to the dedicated efforts of volunteers. Volunteers played a crucial role in various aspects of the conference, from registration and logistics to technical support and social events. Their commitment and enthusiasm contributed significantly to the smooth running of the conference, ensuring a positive and enriching experience for all attendees. The impact of volunteer efforts was evident in the positive feedback received from participants, highlighting the invaluable contribution of volunteers to the success of the NCSC

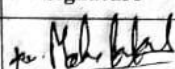

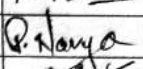

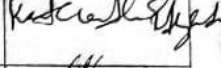

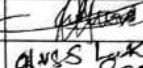

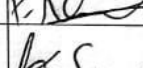

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who participated, contributed, and supported this vital cause. Together, we are making a tangible difference in our community.
